

PR/Marketing Consultancy in Germany

American Peanut Council, London

The American Peanut Council (APC), a non-profit US trade association with a European office in London, is re-bidding its pr/marketing programme contract in Germany.

If you/your company have a track record in the trade and consumer food sector in Germany, you are invited to bid for this contract. Those interested should e-mail lmckerchar@peanutsusa.org.uk and request a copy of the bid solicitation documentation – please put ‘APC German PR/Marketing Programme’ in the subject line of your e-mail.

The deadline for submissions to be returned to APC is Friday 20th February 2009.

According to U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) regulations, the American Peanut Council does not discriminate in its programmes on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, marital or familial status.
